Wheaton, IL: Foundation Wealth Strategies (FWS) benefits Kendall County Community Food Pantry (KCCFP)

The Kendall County Community Food Pantry recently received over $2000 in monetary and grocery items as part of FWS' annual client appreciation event held August 16, 2019 at Northwestern Medicine field in Geneva. Over 200 guests watched as The Kane County Cougars edged out the Peoria Chiefs 4-3.

"We are thrilled to support the KCCFP this year as part of our annual commitment to local charities," said FWS co-founder and current President Timothy J. Rueter. "The funds we collected will directly support KCCFP's effort to combat hunger, a challenge facing many families in our surrounding communities," Rueter added.

Each year, the employees at FWS pick a local charity that will receive the proceeds of donations collected at the event. Clients and guests attending the event enjoyed baseball, food and various giveaways.

Every $1 dollar donated during the event helped KCCFP provide $8 in groceries for their weekly self-choice food pantry secured through the Northern Illinois Food Bank.
