WHAT YOU WILL SEE IN THIS BROCHURE

THE IMPORTANCE OF TAX PLANNING

Careful planning throughout the year can assist you in reducing the taxes you pay – as well as help you achieve your financial goals. This guide provides an overview of tax rates, credits, deductions and related considerations that may apply to you.

Tax planning should not be done in isolation, but instead should be driven by your overall financial goals and integrated with your total financial plan. By developing and implementing appropriate strategies to lessen or to shift current and future tax liabilities, you can improve your prospects of meeting long- and short-term objectives. For example, accurately projecting your income taxes can help you determine the cash flow available to you in the coming year.

Keep in mind that tax laws are often complex and frequently change. As a consequence, you should consult your tax advisor before making investment and tax decisions.

2015 INCOME TAX CHANGES

The last minute December 16, 2014, passage of the Tax Increase Prevention Act of 2014 temporarily extended some tax benefits retroactive to the beginning of 2014. Those provisions, most notably the qualified charitable contribution from IRAs for those in RMD status, have once again expired for 2015 and left us in the same predicament as 2014, not knowing exactly how to plan for the year. The biggest changes for 2015 are inflation indexing and a couple of notable clarifications in the code from the IRS including IRA rollovers, after-tax to Roth rollovers and the ABLE Act of 2014.

IRA ROLLOVERS

Starting in 2015, you can only make one rollover from an IRA in a 12-month period. In the past, individuals would take distributions from separate IRAs and make multiple rollovers with the philosophy being each IRA only had one rollover. The IRS has clarified that all your IRAs are counted as one and only one rollover can occur per 12-month period. However, this is different than trustee to trustee transfers. Those movements of money are still unlimited. The ruling applies to individuals receiving a check in their hand, using the money temporarily and then rolling the money back into the IRA within 60 days.

AFTER TAX 401(K) TO ROTH IRA

Previously if you wanted to roll your after-tax money in a 401(k) to a Roth IRA, you had to navigate through some very complicated rules that even experts could not always agree upon and then keep your fingers crossed that the IRS would bless the transaction. Now, if you have after-tax dollars in a plan and you are able to take a rollover eligible distribution, you may direct those after-tax dollars to a Roth IRA as a tax-free transaction. There are two critical elements to the distributions. First, you must tell the plan administrator how you are allocating the pre-tax and after-tax dollars beforehand. And second, the transfers must occur at the same time.

ACHIEVING A BETTER LIFE EXPERIENCE ACT OF 2014 (ABLE)

The ABLE Act amended IRC section 529 to allow states to create 529-ABLE accounts for disabled individuals. Currently, a disabled person who could not meet certain income and asset limits risked having to forfeit eligibility for certain government programs. The only way families could get around these rules was to set up special trusts. Families are able to save money for future expenses in a 529A account without having to give up eligibility for public benefits, as long as the funds are spent toward qualified disability expenses which include education, housing, employment training and support, health care and financial management. The aggregate annual contribution limit is $14,000 per individual, and total contribution limits vary by state. However, only the first $100,000 saved in the account is exempted from the Supplemental Security Income (SSI) $2,000 limit, and beneficiaries with account values greater than $100,000 will not receive any SSI benefits (but will still receive Medicaid).

AFFORDABLE CARE ACT

The Affordable Care Act, which also is known as Obamacare, is entering its second year. The act mandates that all Americans have health insurance or pay a penalty. The penalty started out relatively small and will steadily increase. The rationale for the penalty increases is that the law was new last year and many people did not understand the new law, so the IRS will give them a break. By 2015, the government thinks people should have had enough time to understand the rules, so the penalty is steeper. The penalties are listed below. After 2017, the minimum tax penalty per person will rise each year with inflation.

ACA Penalties for Uninsured	2014	2015	2016
Individuals	Greater than $95 or 1% of income	Greater than $325 or 2% of income	Greater than $695 or 2.5% of income
Families	Greater than $285 or 1% of income	Greater than $975 or 2% of income	Greater than $2,085 or 2.5% of income

Individuals or families who fall below certain income thresholds would be exempt from the penalties and would be subsidized to pay for health insurance costs. On the other hand, to offset the cost of providing insurance to low income households, individuals making more than $200,000 a year and couples earning above $250,000 will have additional health care taxes deducted as payroll taxes. These individuals also will get hit with a 3.8% tax on investment income.

FLEXIBLE SPENDING ACCOUNT LIMITS

The annual limit on employee contributions to flexible spending accounts is now $2,550 for qualified health care expenses. You may carry over $500 into 2015. However, if you carry over $500 into 2015, you are disqualified from participating in a health savings account for the entire year.

3.8% SURTAX ON UNEARNED INCOME

The 3.8% surtax on "unearned income" applies to individuals, trusts and estates. "Unearned income" is defined as investment income such as income from interest, dividends, annuities, royalties, capital gains and other passive income.

Two conditions must be met for the 3.8% surtax to apply. First, the taxpayer must have investment income, and second, the taxpayer's modified adjusted gross income (MAGI) must exceed the limits below, which are not indexed for inflation:

- $250,000 for taxpayers filing jointly
- $125,000 for taxpayers filing married filing separately
- $200,000 for other taxpayers

For purposes of the 3.8% surtax, the MAGI limitation is simply the taxpayer's adjusted gross income (AGI) plus any excluded net foreign income. In general terms, AGI is the number at the bottom of the first page of a taxpayer's 1040 (line 37).

If those two conditions are met, then the 3.8% surtax applies to the amount of the investment income, or if smaller, the difference between the taxpayer's MAGI and the limits listed above. For example, if a single taxpayer has $10,000 of dividend income and MAGI of $205,000, then the 3.8% surtax applies to $5,000. If the same taxpayer had MAGI of $211,000, the 3.8% surtax would apply to $10,000.

Filing Status & Threshold MAGI	3.8% Surtax Applies to the Lesser of:
Married Filing Jointly $250,000	Investment Income	MAGI minus $250,000
Married Filing Separately $125,000	Investment Income	MAGI minus $125,000
All Others - $200,000	Investment Income	MAGI minus $200,000

The 3.8% surtax does not apply to distributions from tax-favored retirement plans such as IRAs or qualified plans, although distributions from tax-favored retirement plans may increase a taxpayer's MAGI over the limits discussed above and thereby potentially expose investment income to the 3.8% surtax. In general terms, the 3.8% surtax does not apply to active trades or businesses conducted by a sole proprietor, S corporation or partnership, or to the gains and losses on the sale of active trades or businesses. However, working capital is not treated as being part of an active trade or business for purposes of the 3.8% surtax.

0.9% TAX ON WAGES

An additional 0.9% Medicare tax will be imposed on wages of employees and on earnings of self-employed individuals. The 0.9% Medicare tax will apply to wages and self-employment earnings above the limits below, which are not indexed for inflation:

- $250,000 for taxpayers filing jointly
- $125,000 for taxpayers filing married filing separately
- $200,000 for other taxpayers

The 0.9% Medicare tax applies to employees, but not to employers. For joint filers, the tax applies to the spouses' combined wages. For self-employed individuals, the 0.9% tax is not deductible.

ALTERNATIVE MINIMUM TAX

The tax rates for computing the AMT tax have remained the same at 26% and 28%.

Filing Status	AMT Exemption 2015	AMT Exemption Threshold 2015
Married Filing Jointly and Surviving Spouses	$83,400.00	$158,900.00
Single Filers and Head of Household	$53,600.00	$119,200.00
Married Filing Separately	$41,700.00	$79,450.00

10% AGI FLOOR FOR MEDICAL EXPENSES

For taxpayers who itemize their deductions, the 7.5% AGI floor for the deduction of medical expenses was raised to 10% in 2013. However, if either the taxpayer or the taxpayer's spouse attains the age of 65 before the end of 2013, 2014, 2015 or 2016, then the 7.5% AGI floor will remain in place. For example, a person age 64 in 2014 would have a 10% AGI floor, and then turn 65 in 2015 and have 7.5% AGI floor. The treatment of the deduction for medical expenses will not change for AMT purposes.

Single	$258,250	$380,750
Married Filing Separately	$154,950	$216,200

LIMITATIONS ON ITEMIZED DEDUCTIONS ("PEASE LIMITATION")

The Pease limitation does not apply to investment interest expenses, medical expenses, casualty and theft losses, and gambling losses. In addition, the Pease limitation does not apply to estates or trusts. For many taxpayers, the Pease limitation will reduce itemized deductions by $3,000 for every $100,000 of AGI over the threshold amount. The threshold amounts are now indexed for inflation after 2015.

Threshold AGI	Reduction is Lesser Of:
MFJ - $309,900	3% of AGI minus Threshold	80% of Allowable Itemized Deductions
HOH - $284,050
Single - $258,250
MFS - $154,950

QUALIFIED DIVIDEND INCOME

The tax law of 2012 indefinitely extended the favorable long-term capital gains tax rates for "qualified dividends." To qualify, the taxpayer must have held the stock for more than 60 days during the 121-day period beginning 60 days before the ex-dividend date, and the dividend must be paid from a domestic corporation or certain qualified foreign corporations.

As such, taxpayers under the 25% bracket will have a 0% qualified dividend tax rate. For taxpayers in the 25% bracket and up, the maximum qualified dividend tax rate will be 15%. However, for taxpayers whose income falls in the 39.6% bracket, the maximum rate will be 20%. For these latter high-income taxpayers, the additional 3.8% surtax discussed above will also apply, raising the effective maximum tax rate to 23.8%.

Dividend income that is not qualified dividend income will be taxed at ordinary income rates.

LONG-TERM CAPITAL GAINS RATES

Taxpayers below the 25% bracket will have a 0% long-term capital gains tax rate. For taxpayers in the 25% bracket and up, the maximum capital gain tax rate will be 15%. However, for taxpayers whose income falls in the 39.6% bracket, the maximum rate will be 20%. For these latter high-income taxpayers, the additional 3.8% surtax discussed above will also apply, raising the effective tax rate to 23.8%.

EDUCATION

Contribution Amounts to Coverdell: $2,000 per beneficiary. This amount is phased out from $190,000 to $220,000 for married filing jointly, and $95,000 to $110,000 for single filers.

Gifts to 529 Plan: Gifts can be front loaded up to $70,000 (5 years x $14,000 annual exclusion) and $140,000 for married couples who split gifts. Front loading uses the annual gift tax exclusion for the current year and the next four years.

American Opportunity Credit: Up to 100% of the first $2,000, and 25% of the next $2,000, for a total of $2,500 maximum credit per eligible student per year, with reduction for MAGI between $80,000 and $90,000 for single filers, and $160,000 and $180,000 for joint filers.

Lifetime Learning Credit: Up to 20% of the first $10,000 (per taxpayer) of qualified expenses paid in 2015, with reduction for MAGI from $55,000 to $65,000 for single filers and $110,000 to $130,000 for joint filers.

Student Loan Interest Deduction: $2,500 "above-the-line" deduction, with reduction for MAGI from $65,000 to $80,000 for single filers and $130,000 to $160,000 for married filing jointly.

Modified AGI – U.S. Savings Bond Interest Exclusion: $77,200 to $92,200 for single filers and $115,750 to $145,750 for married filing jointly. Bonds must be titled in the name of the parents only, owner must be age 24 or older at the time of issue, proceeds must be used for qualified post-secondary education expenses of the taxpayer, the taxpayer's spouse or the taxpayer's dependent.

NETTING PROCESS

Determine whether you have a net short-term or net long-term capital gain or loss on the sale of stock.

1. Net your short-term gains and short-term losses.
2. Net your long-term gains and long-term losses.
3. Net your short-term gain/loss against long-term gain/loss.
4. For gains, you must pay tax on all gains each year. For losses, you may only deduct up to $3,000 of excess losses against ordinary income per year.
5. Carry over any remaining losses to future tax years.

Child Tax Credit

Year	Tax Credit
2015	$1,000 per eligible child

KIDDIE TAX RULES

The Kiddie Tax rules require the unearned income of a child or young adult be taxed at the greater of the child's or parents' marginal tax bracket once the unearned income exceeds $2,100. Under the Kiddie Tax rules, the first $1,050 in unearned income is not subject to tax. The next $1,050 of unearned income is taxed at the child's rate. Then, any unearned income of more than $2,100 is taxed at the parents' marginal rate. The Kiddie Tax rules apply to unearned income of the following:

- A child under age 18 at the end of each tax year
- An 18-year-old whose earned income does not exceed one-half of his or her support
- A 19- to 23-year-old full-time student whose earned income does not exceed one-half of his or her support

INDIVIDUAL RETIREMENT ACCOUNTS

Generally, traditional IRA contributions are fully deductible unless you or your spouse is covered by a workplace retirement plan, in which case the following deduction phaseouts apply. If neither individual nor spouse is covered by a plan, you can deduct up to $5,500 each or MAGI, whichever is less.

Traditional IRA: Deductibility of Contributions

Status	Modified Adjusted Gross Income	Contribution
Married Filing Jointly and Surviving Spouses	$0 - $98,000	$5,500 Maximum
	$98,000 - $118,000	Partial
	More than $118,000	None
Single Filers and Head of Household	$0 - $61,000	$5,500 Maximum
	$61,000 - $71,000	Partial
	More than $71,000	None
Married Non-Covered Spouse*	$0 - $183,000	$5,500 Maximum
	$183,000 - $193,000	Partial
	More than $193,000	None

* Applies to individuals whose spouses are covered by a workplace plan but who are not covered themselves.

Roth IRA: Eligibility of Contributions

Contributions made to a Roth IRA are not deductible, unlike contributions made to a traditional IRA, and there is no age restriction on making contributions. An individual may contribute up to $5,500 to the Roth IRA, subject to income phaseout limits.

Status	Modified Adjusted Gross Income	Contribution
Married Filing Jointly and Surviving Spouses	$0 - $183,000	$5,500 Maximum
	$183,000 - $193,000	Partial
	More than $193,000	None
Single Filers and Head of House-hold	$0 - $116,000	$5,500 Maximum
	$116,000 - $131,000	Partial
	More than $131,000	None

Catch-Up Contributions

If you have either a traditional or Roth IRA and attain age 50 or older during the tax year, an additional $1,000 may be contributed.

IRA & Roth Contribution

Maximum contribution	Catch-up contribution
$5,500	$1,000

401(k) Contributions

Employee maximum deferral contribution	Catch-up contribution if age 50 or older

UNIFORM LIFETIME TABLE

For the majority of IRA participants, the following table is used for determining a participant's required minimum distributions (RMDs). There is an exception when a spousal beneficiary is more than 10 years younger than the participant and is the sole beneficiary on January 1. In this case, a different table is used.

To calculate your RMD, first find the age you will turn in 2015 and the corresponding applicable divisor. Then divide the prior year-end balance of your IRA account by the divisor. The resulting number is the dollar figure you will need to remove from your IRA to meet your RMD for the current year.

For example, if you are now 82, your applicable divisor is 17.1. If the balance in your IRA as of December 31 of last year was $235,000, divide that amount by 17.1. The result is $13,742.69. This is the amount of your RMD for the current year.

Age	Applicable Divisor	Age	Applicable Divisor	Age	Applicable Divisor
70	27.4	86	14.1	102	5.5
71	26.5	87	13.4	103	5.2

PRESENT VALUE OF A LUMP SUM

What if you know you will need $10,000 accumulated 10 years from now? How much money do you need to invest today at an average interest rate of 8% to obtain your goal? Looking at the table below, go to 10 years and then across to 8%. You see that $0.463 invested today at 8% should yield $1 in 10 years. Since you want $10,000, multiply $0.463 by $10,000 to arrive at $4,630.

Years	5%	6%	8%	10%	12%
10	.614	.558	.463	.386	.322
20	.377	.312	.215	.149	.104
30	.231	.174	.099	.057	.033
40	.142	.097	.046	.022	.011

FUTURE VALUE OF A LUMP SUM

If you invest $10,000 at an interest rate of 8%, how much will your investment be worth in 10 years? By referring to the table, you find that $1 invested today at 8% would grow to $2.159 in 10 years. Since you invested $10,000, multiply $2.159 by $10,000, giving you $21,590.

Years	5%	6%	8%	10%	12%
10	1.629	1.791	2.159	2.594	3.106
20	2.653	3.207	4.661	6.727	9.646
30	4.322	5.743	10.063	17.449	29.960
40	7.040	10.286	21.725	45.259	93.051

PRESENT VALUE OF A SERIES OF ANNUAL PAYMENTS

How much money would you need to invest today at an interest rate of 8% to provide $10,000 per year for 10 years? Looking at the chart below, to receive $1 per year for 10 years at 8%, you would need to invest $6.710. Multiply that figure by $10,000 to get $67,100, the amount which you would need to invest.

Years	5%	6%	8%	10%	12%
10	7.722	7.360	6.710	6.145	5.650
20	12.462	11.470	9.818	8.514	7.469
30	15.372	13.765	11.258	9.427	8.055
40	17.159	15.046	11.925	9.779	8.244

FUTURE VALUE OF A SERIES OF ANNUAL PAYMENTS

If you deposit $5,000 in an annuity at the end of each year for 10 years at an 8% interest rate, you would have $72,435 ($5,000 x $14.487) in your account at the end of the 10th year.

Years	5%	6%	8%	10%	12%
10	12.578	13.181	14.487	15.937	17.549
20	33.066	36.786	45.762	57.275	72.052
30	66.439	79.058	113.283	164.494	241.333
