FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

304 Family Wealth Donates to Food to the Rescue of Putnam County

COOKEVILLE- Faith Judkins is proud to announce a donation of $1,000 to Food to the Rescue, a dedicated organization that provides essential food resources to children in need during school breaks in Putnam County and Overton County. This generous contribution will help ensure that no child goes hungry while away from school.

Food to the Rescue plays a vital role in the community by delivering meals to children who might otherwise face food insecurity during holidays and school breaks. With the rising challenges many families face this organization's mission has become increasingly important, and 304 Family Wealth of Raymond James family is honored to support their efforts.

The funds will be utilized to expand the organization's outreach and provide more meals to families who rely on their services. Food to the Rescue is committed to ensuring that every child has the nutrition they need to thrive, regardless of their circumstances.
