FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Raymond James Gives to Hope Adoption & Family Services

COOKEVILLE- Office Manager Katie Eldridge chose Hope Adoption & Family Services for Branch ADG's next charitable donation. A $1750.00 check was presented to Family Advocate Emilee Roberson. The funds will be used to support expectant mothers as they choose a family for their child. Eldridge said, "Becoming a parent isn't always an easy road and I want to support other parents on their journey."

Hope Adoption & Family Services opened in 2018 and is a 501c3 state-licensed, non-profit Christian adoption agency. They exist to serve women facing unexpected or unplanned pregnancy and place children for adoption in two-parent Christian homes. Using counseling and education services, they continue learning how to support pregnant women and adoptive families while providing support in the adoption journey. Since they do not receive federal funding, they rely on support from churches, businesses, and individuals.
