FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Matt Brown/Raymond James donate to Tennessee Tech Football

COOKEVILLE- Raymond James off North Washington Avenue has strong ties to Tennessee Tech University. Six of their seven employees attended TTU, with four of them being former student athletes. Giving back to their hometown university is important to the team.

When the opportunity arose to help fulfill a need with the football program, TTU Football Alumnus Matt Brown was ready to step up and make a donation. A $4,000.00 check was presented to Associate Athletic Director for Development Bobby Taylor. This is the first donation of the year, and a great way to kick off 2024 giving.

Brown said “Going to Tech helped mold who I am today. Being a part of the football program was one of the most humbling experiences I had in my life. It helped teach me how to react when things don’t always go as planned, and I will always be grateful for my time there. I was glad Bobby thought of our staff, and called to give us a chance to give back to the football program.”
