

JUSTIN W. MILLER

Financial Advisor, MA, AAMS®

As the owner of Fireside Financial, Justin considers himself a type of financial consultant, helping his clients build and maintain their most important financial goals. By utilizing the wealth management process that he has personally developed, he helps to coach his clients, focusing on accomplishing their financial goals faster than if they were trying to achieve them on their own.

Justin and his wife Amy have five children. His stepson, Chandler, who enlisted in the Navy in 2016, Ayla, who is attending high school at Nerinx Hall, Kinley, who is attending middle school at Hixon Middle school, and Kian & Saige, who are boy girl twins attending grade school at Avery Elementary. Justin is an active member in his community through volunteering in a coaching capacity for numerous sports and assists with the BSA program in multiple different roles.

Justin supports local schools by volunteering as a guest speaker to help educate kids on personal finances and publicly speaking for community outreach programs to help promote financial awareness. He serves on the Board of Directors for the Saint Charles Community College as education has always been one of his biggest passions.

In 1999, Justin earned the rank of Eagle Scout, the highest rank in the Boy Scouts of America.

In 2007, he earned his master's degree in Management and Leadership from Webster University in St. Louis, Missouri. He earned the professional designation of Accredited Asset Management Specialist - AAMS from the College for Financial Planning in 2010.

Justin has worked in the financial industry for over 15 years.
